

Focus:

It appears that the challenges facing our town and neighboring communities is a stronger infrastructure. Needed is a focus on highway traffic management and inground water/sanitary systems that can support the expansive growth for the homes and complexes planned. Visionary planning and strong infrastructure must stay ahead of growth to maintain the quality of life we came here to enjoy

Experience: 40 successful years in government service in both elected and appointed leadership positions.

- Town of St. James, NC
 - Zoning and Development Committee
- City of Safety Harbor, FL
 - Finance and Budget Committee
 - Zoning and Land-Use Committee
- Ray R. Irvin & Associates, Indianapolis, IN
 - Project initiation and community development of Infrastructure Connectivity through Greenway and Bikeway projects
 - Consultant with U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and Saski Associates on Indiana State White River State Park Master Plan
- State of Indiana
 - Gov. Mitch Daniels appointment Dept. of Transportation; INDOT Director.
 - Acquired over 200 miles of abandoned rail corridors in 45 counties to create the Monon Trail with inground infrastructures
 - Commission Member Wabash River Heritage Corridor Commission
 - Committee Member - Ohio River Greenways Commission, Purdue University/INDOT Highway Safety Board, White River State Park Commission, Metropolitan Development Commission, Public Safety Police and Fire Commission, Parks and Recreation Commission

- City of Indianapolis, IN
 - Head of Greenways Development Commission creating 250 miles of trails along 20 rivers, rail corridors including the White River Trail, Fall Creek Trail, Pleasant Run Trail, Pogues Run Trail, Central Canal Tow Path, 1 Mountain Bike Park and Town Run Trail Park.
 - City Council Commissioner - Voted Outstanding Councilman of 29-member council
 - Created legislation for River Greenways Task Force
- Military
 - USAF/USAFR/USAF 68-78 Lieutenant Colonel, Maintenance Officer, Pilot,
- Education
 - Eastern Washington State College, USAF University, IUPUI - BS

